

Amadeus is certified by the American Kennel Club as a Canine Good Citizen.

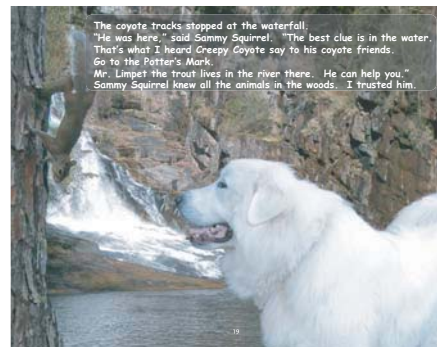

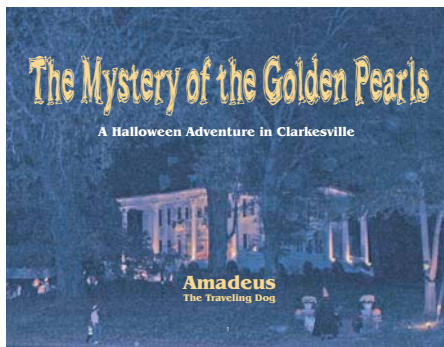

He visits schools, libraries, book stores, and hospitals where he interacts with children and adults.

Friendship Rules is a story of how Amadeus met Penny the cat in an unusual place. They became friends. They made a few simple rules to help their friendship last.

Aloha Adventure a story of how Amadeus used his imagination to have some fun on a cold, rainy day. Through the magic of digital technology Amadeus has a great time.

The Mystery of the Golden Pearls is a Halloween adventure story. Children dressed in their Halloween costumes become characters in the story. Local animals also play a role as Amadeus solves the mystery just in time.

Amadeus

the Traveling Dog

Amadeus Books are Unique.

- * Amadeus is a real live dog.
- * His books are illustrated with photographs, not drawings.
- * His books are centered on issues important to children.
- * Amadeus teaches children how to approach a dog safely.
- * Amadeus loves for children to pet him after a story is read.
- * Amadeus enjoys posing with children for photographs.

To schedule a book-reading and/or book-signing event, please contact:

Mary Cofer
 Legacy Publishers
 E-mail: mrcofer@eeinc.org
 Toll Free: 1-800-290-8055 or Cell Phone: (770) 367-1771